Does a nagging joint injury have you lagging behind?

Marshall Joint Academy makes repair and recovery one smooth process.

The last thing active adults want is to slow down for a surgery and rehab process. That's why we developed Marshall Joint Academy. It's a coordinated care program that starts with a patient-focused treatment plan, and ends with the shortest possible recovery period. Our comprehensive approach translates to better outcomes, which means you're reaching new goals in no time.
